Seminar on solid waste management

Staff Reporter

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: The National Institute for Inter-disciplinary Science and Hiyoshi Corporation, Japan, are jointly organising a seminar on 'Solid waste management control' at the institute in Pappanamcode, near here, on Monday.

The seminar will address various issues related to solid waste management, incineration and dioxins. The seminar will provide learning opportunity as well as a venue for exchange of views.

The officials of Hiyoshi will share their experience and expertise in the analysis of dibenzofurans and biphenyls in fuel gas, solid wastes and food stuffs.

The seminar will begin at 9.45 a.m.
