ASPA, CSIR-NIIST signs pact for India's fight against counterfeiting

New Delhi, Jul 18 (UNI) In order to support India's fight against counterfeiting and assure better consumer protection and public welfare, Authentication Solution Providers' Association (ASPA) and CSIR-NIIST have joined hands and signed a pact here. They have signed MoU for knowledge sharing, research and development of new generation physical and digital authentication solutions to support Make in India programme and strengthening India's position as a global leader in fight against counterfeit goods and products. Pooling in their resources together both these pioneering organizations can progress rapidly on India's fight against counterfeiting, the ASPA said in a statement. The decision was taken in the recently concluded Annual General Meeting (AGM) of ASPA. UNI NY SW
